

I think it is silly that you think XM shouldn't offer up to the minute traffic and weather reports. They provide opportunities for safety in communication where problems or dangers might be. They provided valuable information immediately when it isn't available on regular radio commercial free!!!! The consumers of this country want it. XM can provide it better than anyone else. The times they are a changing. Its time to deal with it effectively. Embrace the future.